Discussion Questions:

1. What have I been learning from the Word of God?
2. In what area(s) have I been personally progressing as a result of being under the ministry of the Word of God?
3. Does the “average” Christian intentionally think about and apply Scriptures which teach where mature mentors should be found or does he or she just go with flow and hope for the best in finding mature mentors? Why?
4. When Titus 2 is not applied within the context of the church, how is it viewed by church members? How should it be viewed?
5. According to what we have learned from Ephesians 4 and Titus 2, where should a Christian young lady in her 20’s from a Christian home be able to find mature mentors?
6. Why do you think the Scriptures emphasize the importance for the various generations to be involved in each other’s lives? What happens when the Titus 2 pattern of the older teaching the younger breaks down?
7. What Scripture passages would encourage the formation of retirement communities where young people are not allowed to live?
8. How does the general direction and teaching of the world to ladies compare to the curriculum that Titus 2 lays out for ladies?
9. Where do you fit into Titus 2? What are some ways that you can apply Titus 2 to your life?
